Getting to the Virtual Beauty Exhibition

We advise you arrive via the Strand entrance (pictured here), you will need to go into the courtyard by going through the arches.

To enter the South Wing, cross the courtyard and go through the central grey doors which are circled in this photo.

There is a step-free ramp access in the same area on the doors to the left.

This is the entry door to the South Wing

Step free route:
Ramp access via the Stamp Stair door.

Step free route:
Go along this corridor and turn right.

Step free route: Seamen's Hall and the entrance to the exhibition is located at the end of this corridor

The exhibition is taking place in the Terrace Rooms.

The entrance is located in Seamen's Hall shown in the photo with the green arrow above

The exhibition continues from the last Terrace Room and across the corridor to a final room.

There is also an accessible toilet to the right of the last

The corridor next to the exhibition entrance has a lift and staircase that will take you down to the Embankment Level if you choose to exit/enter this way

If taking the lift the LG button will take you to the Lower Ground Embankment Level of Somerset House

Along the corridor opposite the exhibition entrance just past Cafe Petiole are toilets. At the end of the corridor there is another accessible toilet (circled).

Help visiting the exhibition

Somerset House Visitor Experience Assistants will be available to help with any questions on the day. Staff will be wearing blue or purple t-shirts.

Access packs will be available from the Virtual Beauty exhibition entrance.

These contain noise cancelling headphones, magnifying glass sheet for reading any printed text, a large print guide and a stress ball.

We have foldable stools too available at the entrance of the exhibition if you would like to use one.
